Description

This Sublimated Long Sleeve Cycling Jersey is perfect to support you while exercising in cold weather. Our cycling jersey features a full-length hidden zipper with chin protection, back pockets, and low-profile silicone waist gripper. The pockets feature a reflective strip, with 3 standard pockets on the back of the jersey, convenient for storing cycling essentials. Back reflective elements enhance visibility in night, improving the safety of outdoor sports. An elastic hem, silicone details and an elastic waistband hold the jersey in place while riding. Additional options include adding individual names and numbers to the front and back, chest or arms, as well as changing collar type.
