Description

Charge, connect, and stay organised with this premium 1.5m universal charging and data cable. Featuring dual input and output, it offers up to 480Mbps data transfer and a powerful 60W output, even charging a laptop when used with a compatible wall plug. The durable braided design ensures long-lasting performance, while a Velcro tie keeps it tidy on the go. Presented in a sophisticated INGENIO branded gift box, it's a smart essential for work or travel.
