Description

The Heatwave Fan is a compact, rechargeable cooling solution designed for convenience and everyday use. With three speed settings, it delivers refreshing airflow on demand, whether you’re holding it in hand or placing it upright on your desk with the integrated stand. A clever phone stand attachment at the base of the handle adds further functionality, making it perfect for both personal use and branded promotions. Powered by a 300mAh lithium-ion battery, it recharges easily with the supplied 150mm USB-A to Micro USB cable. Each unit is neatly packaged in a kraft tuck box with a white product image for a professional, retail-style presentation. Material: ABS
