Description

The Inaya Diffuser by The Line Edit is a waterless scent diffuser that brings a considered fragrance experience to wherever you are. At home on a bedside table, a desk, or sitting in a cup holder on the morning commute, it moves between spaces without missing a beat. Each Inaya arrives with a 15ml bottle of Bergamot fragrance included, so the experience begins the moment it is unboxed. One bottle carries the scent for up to two weeks, and when it is time for something new, simply refill with whatever fragrance suits the moment. Three ambient LED lights, Blue, Yellow, and Purple, cast a soft glow that shifts the atmosphere of any room. The smart auto start/stop mode works quietly in the background, switching off after three hours to preserve both the oil and the energy, ready to be started again whenever you need it. Powered by a rechargeable 2000mAh lithium battery with the option to connect to a wall charger or USB outlet of at least 5W. Finished in Titanium with a black top, and presented in a kraft retail tuck box with The Line Edit. branding. Material: Aluminium, PP
