Description

Introducing the Nova Power Bank, a sleek 5000mAh portable charger designed to keep your mobile devices powered on the go. Equipped with an A Grade Li-Po battery, this compact power bank includes integrated cables for added convenience. Featuring a micro USB cable, a separate 8-pin cable, and a Type C adaptor stored within the case, it ensures compatibility with a wide range of devices. Four graduated LED indicators provide a clear view of the battery level, so you always know how much power you have left. The Nova Power Bank can recharge most devices between 80% and 100%, and comes with a micro USB cable for recharging the power bank itself. Material: ABS case.
