Description

This full-length plastic face shield offers a clear barrier in front of the face and can be worn comfortably with respirators, goggles or other protective masks. Designed with a soft sponge headband, adjustable elastic strap and lightweight PET construction, it suits a wide range of adult sizes. Care is simple: wash with soap and water or disinfect with standard household cleaners. Packaging includes 10 shields per polybag and 300 units per carton. Please note: two protective films must be removed from the shield before use. These are added to prevent scratching during transit.
