Description

Slim, lightweight and powered by a 5,000 mAh A Grade Lithium-Polymer battery, the Kendal combines the look and feel of its natural bamboo case with the latest protection circuitry to stabilise the output voltage, prevent over charging and short circuits. While offering both Micro USB and Type-C inputs and an easy to read LED indicator the Kendal provides dual USB outputs. Suitable for charging most electronic devices including smart phone, tablets or any other 5V DC powered device using a charge cable. Includes a Micro USB charge cable and user manual. Material: Bamboo.
