Description

Introducing the Spectre Eco Wireless Charger Hub, a 5W wireless charger that combines sustainable design with versatile functionality. Made from 50% wheat fibre, a renewable and biodegradable material, this eco-conscious hub not only provides wireless charging for your phone but also features two USB A ports for charging additional devices via cable. Simply connect the charging pad to a power source using the provided micro USB cable and place your phone on the pad to start charging. An inductive charging indicator ensures you know when your device is charging. The Spectre Eco Wireless Charger Hub comes with a 12-month limited technology warranty for added peace of mind. Material: 50% Wheat Fibre, 50% ABS
